

PROGRAMME International Conference on Energy Management Systems

‘ISO 50001 – Creating business and policy values with Energy Management Systems’

Date and venue

15th of June 2016 (08.45 – 18.00)

MÄLARSALÉN, Münchenbryggeriet, Torkel Knutssongatan 2,
Stockholm, SWEDEN <http://m-b.se/>

Hosts

SIS, Swedish Standards Institute and
Swedish Energy Agency, SEA

08.45 - Registration and coffee

09.15 - Opening and welcome

Nils Vikmång, State Secretary
Swedish Ministry of the Environment and Energy

Thomas Idermark, CEO
SIS, Swedish Standards Institute

Keynote Speakers

Roland Risser, Chair of ISO/TC 301
‘Energy Management and Energy Savings’
“Making ISO 50001 the international business case”

Kevin McKinley, Acting ISO Secretary-General
“Video Message from Acting ISO Secretary-General”

Tiago Serrenho, Technical Project Officer
European Commission, DG JRC
“ISO 50001 and international standards in EU Policies.”

International initiatives to support implementation and take-up of ISO 50001

Moderator

Martin Fry, Professor
Energy Services and Technology Association,
ESTA (UK)

Graziella Siciliano, Initiative Coordinator
Energy Management Working Group,
The Clean Energy Ministerial (US)
“Going Further Faster Together – International Cooperation on ISO 50001”

Marco Matteini, Industrial Development
Officer, Energy Department,
United Nations Industrial Development
Organization, UNIDO
“UNIDO global promotion and support of EnMS-ISO50001”

Maren Kornmann, Co-Managing Director
Association Energiestadt and ENCO Energie-
Consulting AG (Switzerland)
“ISO 50001 and European Energy Award (eea) – a perfect match?!”

Nour Diab, Project Manager
AFNOR Energies (France)
“International Survey: Energy Management Practices in ISO 50001 – Certified Organizations”

Panel discussion

Lunch

13.00 - Opening of afternoon sessions

Erik Brandsma, Director General
Swedish Energy Agency, SEA

ISO 50001 in national programmes

Moderator

Graziella Siciliano, Initiative Coordinator
Energy Management Working Group,
The Clean Energy Ministerial (US)

Clemens Rohde, Coordinator of business unit energy efficiency,
Fraunhofer ISI (Germany)
“3,500 certificates in Germany - Can policy measures explain why?”

Thomas Björkman, Program Manager
Swedish Energy Agency, SEA (Sweden)
“Voluntary agreement, PFE – Promoting organisational learning using ISO 50001”

Shigeki Sakamoto, Research Fellow
Research and Development Division,
The Institute of Applied Energy (Japan)
“Energy efficiency programs and promotion of ISO50001 in Japan”

Panel discussion

Coffee

Successful implementation of ISO 50001 in the industry

Moderator

Chad Gilless, Practice Lead, Strategic Energy
Management
EnerNOC (US)

Magnus Pettersson, Energy Coordinator
Höganäs AB (Powder metal) (Sweden)
“Benefits and problems with EMS for industrial energy conservation”

Mats Marcus, Energy Efficiency Manager
Stora Enso AB (Pulp & Paper) (Sweden)
“LeanEnergy@StoraEnso”

Reine Spetz, Energy Manager,
Borealis (Chemicals) (Sweden)
“Energy Management Systems – how to unlock the potential”

Panel Discussion

Energy Management in the European Energy Efficiency Directive

Moderator

Bernard Gindroz, Chairman
CEN/CENELEC Sector Forum Energy
Management, SFEM (Belgium)

Anton Barckhausen, Project Director
German Energy Agency, DENA (Germany)
“Possibilities and incentives for non-SMEs in Germany to fulfil the requirements in Article 8 of EED”

Martina Berg, Program Manager
Swedish Energy Agency, SEA (Sweden)
“How can management systems play a role in national legislation? – a Swedish example of implementing art 8 of EED”

Daniele Forni, Chief Technology Officer,
Federazione Italiana per l'uso Razionale
dell'Energia (Italy)
“ISO 50001 in the Italian implementation of article 8”

Ronald Vermeeren, Senior Consultant
International Cooperation, Enterprise Agency of the Ministry of Economic Affairs (The Netherlands) “Steam-Up: How energy audits will end up in real energy savings!”

Panel Discussion

Closing Panel Discussion (Open floor): Where do we go from here?

Moderator

Roland Risser, Chair of ISO/TC 301

Graziella Siciliano

Ronald Vermeeren

Mikael Möller, Director public affairs,
IKEM - Innovation and Chemical Industries in Sweden

17.00 – 18.00 – Closing reception

Drinks and snacks

The conference is the result of a cooperation with

